

NINTH EDITION

The Bedford Guide for College Writers

*with Reader,
Research Manual, and Handbook*

X. J. Kennedy • Dorothy M. Kennedy • Marcia F. Muth

Contents

Preface: To the Instructor	v
Rhetorical Contents	xxvii
Selected Visual Contents	xli
How to Use The Bedford Guide for College Writers	1

A WRITER'S GUIDE

Introduction: Writing in College	3
----------------------------------	---

Part One A College Writer's Processes 4

1. Writing Processes 6

Writing, Reading, and Critical Thinking	6
A Process of Writing	7
Getting Started	7
Generating Ideas	7
Learning by Doing: Reflecting on Ideas	8
Planning, Drafting, and Developing	8
Learning by Doing: Reflecting on Drafts	10
Revising and Editing	10
Learning by Doing: Reflecting on Finishing	11
Purpose and Audience	11
Writing for a Reason	12
Learning by Doing: Considering Purpose	12
Writing for Your Audience	12
Learning by Doing: Considering Audience	13
Targeting a College Audience	15

Learning by Doing: Considering a College Audience	16
Additional Writing Activities	16

2. Reading Processes 17

A Process of Critical Reading	17
Learning by Doing: Describing Your Reading Strategies	18
Getting Started	18
Preparing to Read	19
Learning by Doing: Preparing to Read	20
Responding to Reading	20
Learning by Doing: Annotating a Passage	22
Learning by Doing: Responding in a Reading Journal	23
Learning from Another Writer: Reading Summary and Response	24
■ Student Response: Olof Eriksson, The Problems with Masculinity	24
Reading on Literal and Analytical Levels	25
Learning by Doing: Reading Analytically	27
Generating Ideas from Reading	27
Learning from Another Writer: Reading Summary, Critique, and Application	29
■ Student Journal: Stephanie Switzer, A Response to "Free the Children"	30
Learning by Doing: Reading Critically	31
■ Jeffery M. Leving and Glenn Sacks, Women Don't Want Men? Ha!	31
Reading Online and Multimodal Texts	33
Learning by Doing: Reading a Web Site	34
Additional Writing Activities	35

3. Critical Thinking Processes 36

A Process of Critical Thinking 36

Learning by Doing: Thinking Critically to Solve a Campus Problem 36

Getting Started 36

Learning by Doing: Thinking Critically to Explore an Issue 38

Applying Critical Thinking to Academic Problems 38

Learning by Doing: Thinking Critically to Respond to an Academic Problem 39

Supporting Critical Thinking with Evidence 40

Types of Evidence 40

Learning by Doing: Looking for Evidence 42

Testing Evidence 42

Using Evidence to Appeal to Your Audience 43

Logical Appeal (Logos) 43

Emotional Appeal (Pathos) 44

Ethical Appeal (Ethos) 44

Learning by Doing: Identifying Types of Appeals 45

Learning from Another Writer: Rhetorical Analysis 45

- Student Analysis: Richard Anson, Young Americans and Media News 45

Presenting Your Critical Thinking 46

Learning by Doing: Testing Logical Patterns 50

Avoiding Faulty Thinking 50

Learning by Doing: Analyzing Reasoning 52

- Al Knight, Perhaps We Should Move to Save Dogs from Their Owners 52

Additional Writing Activities 55

Part Two A Writer's Situations 56

4. Recalling an Experience 58

Learning from Other Writers 60

- Russell Baker, The Art of Eating Spaghetti 60

- Student Essay: Robert G. Schreiner, What Is a Hunter? 63

Learning by Writing 66

The Assignment: Recalling a Personal Experience 66

Generating Ideas 67

Learning by Doing: Creating Your Writing Space 69

Planning, Drafting, and Developing 70

Learning by Doing: Stating the Importance of Your Experience 70

Learning by Doing: Selecting and Arranging Events 71

Revising and Editing 71

Learning by Doing: Appealing to the Senses 73

Additional Writing Assignments 74

5. Observing a Scene 77

Learning from Other Writers 79

- Eric Liu, The Chinatown Idea 79
- Student Essay: Michael Coil, Communications 82

Learning by Writing 85

The Assignment: Observing a Scene 85

Generating Ideas 86

Learning by Doing: Enriching Sensory Detail 88

Planning, Drafting, and Developing 88

Learning by Doing: Experimenting with Organization 89

Revising and Editing 89

Learning by Doing: Strengthening Your Main Impression 91

Additional Writing Assignments 92

6. Interviewing a Subject 96

Learning from Other Writers 98

- Paul Solotaroff, The Surfing Savant 98
- Student Essay: Lorena A. Ryan-Hines, Looking Backwards, Moving Forward 102

Learning by Writing 104

The Assignment: Interviewing 104

Generating Ideas 105

- Learning by Doing: Transcribing Your Interview Notes 108
- Planning, Drafting, and Developing 109
- Learning by Doing: Stating a Dominant Impression 110
- Revising and Editing 110
- Learning by Doing: Screening Your Details 111
- Additional Writing Assignments 112
- 7. Comparing and Contrasting 116
- Learning from Other Writers 118
- Suzanne Britt, Neat People vs. Sloppy People 118
 - Student Essay: Tim Chabot, Take Me Out to the Ball Game, but Which One? 121
- Learning by Writing 124
- The Assignment: Comparing and Contrasting 124
- Generating Ideas 125
- Learning by Doing: Making a Comparison-and-Contrast Table 126
- Planning, Drafting, and Developing 127
- Learning by Doing: Pinpointing Your Purpose 127
- Learning by Doing: Building Cohesion with Transitions 130
- Revising and Editing 130
- Additional Writing Assignments 133
- 8. Explaining Causes and Effects 136
- Learning from Other Writers 138
- Jeffrey Pfeffer, Lay Off the Layoffs 138
 - Student Essay: Yun Yung Choi, Invisible Women 142
- Learning by Writing 144
- The Assignment: Explaining Causes and Effects 144
- Generating Ideas 145
- Learning by Doing: Visualizing the Situation 146
- Learning by Doing: Making a Cause-and-Effect Table 147
- Planning, Drafting, and Developing 148
- Learning by Doing: Focusing Your Introduction 149
- Revising and Editing 150
- Additional Writing Assignments 152
- 9. Taking a Stand 155
- Learning from Other Writers 157
- Suzan Shown Harjo, Last Rites for Indian Dead 157
 - Student Essay: Marjorie Lee Garretson, More Pros Than Cons in a Meat-Free Life 160
- Learning by Writing 162
- The Assignment: Taking a Stand 162
- Generating Ideas 164
- Learning by Doing: Asking Your Question 165
- Learning by Doing: Supporting a Claim 171
- Planning, Drafting, and Developing 172
- Learning by Doing: Refining Your Plans 173
- Learning by Doing: Making Columns of Appeals 174
- Revising and Editing 175
- TAKE ACTION Strengthening Support for a Stand 177
- Recognizing Logical Fallacies 178
- Additional Writing Assignments 180
- 10. Proposing a Solution 183
- Learning from Other Writers 185
- Wilbert Rideau, Why Prisons Don't Work 185
 - Student Essay: Lacey Taylor, It's Not Just a Bike 188
- Learning by Writing 190
- The Assignment: Proposing a Solution 190
- Generating Ideas 192
- Learning by Doing: Describing Your Audience 193
- Planning, Drafting, and Developing 194
- Learning by Doing: Making Problem-Solution Columns 195
- Revising and Editing 196
- Learning by Doing: Revising for Clear Organization 197
- Additional Writing Assignments 199

11. Evaluating and Reviewing 202

Learning from Other Writers 204

- Seth Stevenson, Soft Sell: Why Quiet, Understated TV Ads Are So Effective 204
- Student Essay: Dennis O’Neil, Katrina Documentary Gives Voice to Survivors 207

Learning by Writing 209

- The Assignment: Writing an Evaluation 209
- Generating Ideas 211
- Learning by Doing: Developing Criteria 213
- Planning, Drafting, and Developing 213
- Learning by Doing: Stating Your Overall Judgment 213
- Learning by Doing: Supporting Your Judgments 214
- Revising and Editing 214

Additional Writing Assignments 216

12. Supporting a Position with Sources 220

Learning from Other Writers 222

- Jake Halpern, The Popular Crowd 222
- Student Essay: Melissa Lamberth, Overworked! 225

Learning by Writing 229

- The Assignment: Supporting a Position with Sources 229
- Generating Ideas 230
- Learning by Doing: Selecting Reliable Sources 232
- Planning, Drafting, and Developing 233
- Learning by Doing: Connecting Evidence and Thesis 233
- Revising and Editing 243
- Learning by Doing: Launching Your Sources 244
- Learning by Doing: Checking Your Presentation of Sources 247
- TAKE ACTION Integrating Source Information Effectively 248

Additional Writing Assignments 250

Part Three Other Writing Situations 254

13. Responding to Literature 256

Using Strategies for Literary Analysis 256

Learning from Other Writers 257

- Shirley Jackson, The Lottery 257
- Preparing to Write a Literary Analysis 264
- Student Literary Analysis: Jonathan Burns, The Hidden Truth: An Analysis of Shirley Jackson’s “The Lottery” 266
- A Glossary of Terms for Literary Analysis 268

Learning by Writing: Literary Analysis 270

- The Assignment: Analyzing a Literary Work 270
- Generating Ideas 271
- Learning by Doing: Developing Your Literary Analysis 273
- Planning, Drafting, and Developing 274
- Learning by Doing: Developing Your Thesis 275
- Revising and Editing 277

Learning from Another Writer:

- Synopsis 278
- Student Synopsis: Jonathan Burns, A Synopsis of “The Lottery” 278

Learning by Writing: Synopsis 279

- The Assignment: Writing a Synopsis of a Story by Kate Chopin 279
- Kate Chopin, The Story of an Hour 280

Learning from Another Writer:

- Paraphrase 282
- Student Paraphrase: Jonathan Burns, A Paraphrase from “The Lottery” 282

Learning by Writing: Paraphrase 283

- The Assignment: Writing a Paraphrase of a Poem 283

Additional Writing Assignments 283

14. Responding to Visual Representations 285

Using Strategies for Visual Analysis 285

Level One: Seeing the Big Picture 286

Source, Purpose, and Audience 286

Prominent Element 287

Focal Point 287

Learning by Doing: Seeing the Big Picture 289

Level Two: Observing the Characteristics of an Image 289

Cast of Characters 289

Story of the Image 290

Design and Arrangement 290

Artistic Choices 291

Learning by Doing: Observing Characteristics 296

Level Three: Interpreting the Meaning of an Image 296

General Feeling or Mood 296

Sociological, Political, Economic, or Cultural Attitudes 297

Language 298

Signs and Symbols 299

Themes 299

Learning by Doing: Interpreting Meaning 300

Learning from Another Writer: Visual Analysis 300

- Student Analysis of an Advertisement: Rachel Steinhaus, “Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit” 301

Learning by Writing 303

The Assignment: Analyzing a Visual Representation 303

Generating Ideas 304

Planning, Drafting, and Developing 304

Revising and Editing 305

Learning from Another Writer: Visual Essay 306

- Student Photo Essay: Josh Birnbaum, Uphill Battle 306

Additional Writing Assignments 309

15. Writing Online 311

Getting Started with Campus and Course Basics 311

Learning by Doing: Identifying Online Writing Expectations 313

Class Courtesy 313

Online Ethics 314

Learning by Doing: Making Personal Rules 314

Common Online Writing Situations 315

Messages to Your Instructor 315

Learning by Doing: Finding a College Voice 316

Learning from Other Writers: Messages to Your Instructor 316

Learning by Doing: Contacting Your Instructor 317

Online Profile 317

Learning by Doing: Posting a Personal Profile 318

Learning by Doing: Introducing a Classmate 318

Online Threaded Discussions or Responses 319

Learning from Other Writers: Threaded Discussion 319

Student Online Threaded Discussion: Instructor Kathleen Beauchene and Students Cristina Berrios, Joshua Tefft, Leah Threats, Arthur Wasilewski, and Joel Torres, Discussion of Writing Processes 319

Learning by Doing: Joining a Threaded Discussion 321

Course Management Systems (CMS) and Other Online Tools 321

Course Management Systems 322

Learning by Doing: Exploring Your CMS 323

Other Online Tools 324

File Management 324

Learning by Doing: Preparing a Template 325

Learning by Doing: Organizing Your Files 326

Online Assessment 329

Additional Writing Assignments 331

16. Writing and Presenting under Pressure 333

Essay Examinations 333

Preparing for the Exam 333

Learning from Another Writer: Essay
Exam 334

- Student Essay Answer: David Ian Cohn,
Response to Psychology Question 334

Generating Ideas 335

Planning for Typical Exam Questions 336

Learning by Doing: Asking Questions 338

Drafting: The Only Version 338

Revising: Rereading and Proofing 339

Short-Answer Examinations 340

Timed Writings 340

Portfolio Assessment 342

Understanding Portfolio Assessment 342

Tips for Keeping a Portfolio 344

Oral Presentations 346

Learning from Other Writers: Visuals for
Oral Presentations 348

- Face-to-Face Class Presentation:
Andrew Dillon Bustin, Traditional Urban
Design 348

- Future Conference Presentation: Michelle
Sausen, Parental Involvement 349

Additional Writing Assignments 350

17. Writing in the Workplace 352

Guidelines for Writing in the Workplace 352

Know Your Purpose 352

Keep Your Audience in Mind 353

Use an Appropriate Tone 353

Present Information Carefully 354

E-mail 354

Format for E-mail 355

Résumés and Application Letters 355

Résumés 356

Application Letters 359

Learning by Doing: Planning a Job Application 360

Business Letters 361

Format for Business Letters 361

Memoranda 363

Format for Memoranda 364

Brochures and Presentation Visuals 366

Format for Brochures 366

Format for Presentation Visuals 367

Additional Writing Assignments 368

Part Four A Writer's Strategies 370

18. Strategies: A Case Study 372

Generating Ideas 372

Planning, Drafting, and Developing 374

Rough Draft with Peer and Instructor
Responses 375

Learning by Doing: Responding as a Peer 377

Revising and Editing 378

Revised and Edited Draft 378

Final Draft for Submission 380

- Student Essay: Erin Schmitt, "Mr.
Hertli" 380

Reflecting as a Writer 382

Reflective Portfolio Letter 383

Learning by Doing: Writing a Reflective Letter 384

19. Strategies for Generating Ideas 385

Finding Ideas 385

Building from Your Assignment 386

Learning by Doing: Building from Your Assignment 387

Brainstorming 387

Learning by Doing: Brainstorming 388

Freewriting 388

Learning by Doing: Freewriting 389

Doodling or Sketching 390

Learning by Doing: Doodling or Sketching 391

Mapping 391

Learning by Doing: Mapping 392

Imagining 393

Learning by Doing: Imagining 393

Asking a Reporter's Questions 393

Learning by Doing: Asking a Reporter's
Questions 394

Seeking Motives 395

Learning by Doing: Seeking Motives 396

- Keeping a Journal 396
 - Learning by Doing: Keeping a Journal 397
- Getting Ready 397
 - Setting Up Circumstances 398
 - Preparing Your Mind 398
- 20. Strategies for Stating a Thesis and Planning 400
- Shaping Your Topic for Your Purpose and Your Audience 400
 - Learning by Doing: Considering Purpose and Audience 401
- Stating and Using a Thesis 401
 - Learning by Doing: Identifying Theses 402
 - How to Discover a Working Thesis 402
 - Learning by Doing: Discovering a Thesis 404
 - How to State a Thesis 404
 - Learning by Doing: Examining Thesis Statements 407
 - How to Improve a Thesis 407
 - TAKE ACTION Building a Stronger Thesis 408
 - How to Use a Thesis to Organize 409
 - Learning by Doing: Using a Thesis to Preview 410
- Organizing Your Ideas 410
 - Grouping Your Ideas 410
 - Learning by Doing: Clustering 413
 - Outlining 413
 - Learning by Doing: Moving from Outline to Thesis 417
 - Learning by Doing: Responding to an Outline 420
 - Learning by Doing: Outlining 421
- 21. Strategies for Drafting 422
- Making a Start Enjoyable 422
- Restarting 423
- Paragraphing 423
- Using Topic Sentences 424
 - Learning by Doing: Shaping Topic Sentences 427
- Writing an Opening 428
- Writing a Conclusion 430
 - Learning by Doing: Opening and Concluding 432
- Adding Cues and Connections 433
 - Learning by Doing: Identifying Transitions 437
- 22. Strategies for Developing 438
- Giving Examples 439
 - Learning by Doing: Giving Examples 441
- Providing Details 441
 - Learning by Doing: Providing Details 443
- Defining 443
 - Learning by Doing: Developing an Extended Definition 445
- Reasoning Inductively and Deductively 445
 - Learning by Doing: Reasoning Inductively and Deductively 448
- Analyzing a Subject 448
 - Learning by Doing: Analyzing a Subject 450
- Analyzing a Process 450
 - Learning by Doing: Analyzing a Process 452
- Dividing and Classifying 452
 - Learning by Doing: Dividing and Classifying 454
- Comparing and Contrasting 455
 - Learning by Doing: Comparing and Contrasting 457
- Identifying Causes and Effects 457
 - Learning by Doing: Identifying Causes and Effects 458
- 23. Strategies for Revising and Editing 459
- Re-viewing and Revising 459
 - Revising for Purpose and Thesis 460
 - Revising for Audience 461
 - Revising for Structure and Support 462
 - Learning by Doing: Tackling Macro Revision 463
 - Working with a Peer Editor 463
 - Meeting with Your Instructor 464
 - Decoding Your Instructor's Comments 464
- Revising for Emphasis, Conciseness, and Clarity 467
 - Stressing What Counts 467
 - Cutting and Whittling 468
 - Keeping It Clear 470
 - Learning by Doing: Tackling Micro Revision 471
- Editing and Proofreading 473
 - Editing 474
 - Proofreading 475
 - Learning by Doing: Editing and Proofreading 476

24. Strategies for Future Writing 478

Transferring Knowledge 478

Learning by Doing: Transferring Learning 479

What Do They Want? 479

Analyzing Expectations 479

Connecting Expectations and Assessments 480

Learning by Doing: Decoding an Assignment 481

What Is It? 481

Uncovering Assumptions 481

Analyzing Genre Models 483

Learning by Doing: Analyzing a Genre Model 485

How Do I Write It? 485

Learning by Doing: Reflecting on New Assignments 485

Learning from Another Writer: A Multigenre History Assignment 486

- Professor Laird, Term Paper Assignment 486
- Student Selections: Shari O'Malley, Recognition 487

BOOK
2*A WRITER'S READER

Introduction: Reading to Write 495

25. Families 496

- Christy De'on Miller, Give Me Five More Minutes 497
The mother of an American marine killed in Iraq reflects on her loss.
- Anjula Razdan, What's Love Got to Do with It? 501
The author asks whether arranging marriages might be better than choosing mates based on romantic attraction.
- Judith Warner, Helicopter Parenting Turns Deadly 506
The author discusses the effects of parents becoming too interested in their children's lives, arguing for traditional parent-child boundaries.

- Alfie Kohn, When a Parent's "I Love You" Means "Do as I Say" 509
New research findings on the psychology of motivation are used to question the effectiveness of "conditional parenting."
- Danzy Senna, The Color of Love 513
The daughter of a white mother and a black father explores the complexities – racial and otherwise – of her relationship with her grandmother.

[PAIRED ESSAYS]

- Amy Tan, Mother Tongue 518
A Chinese American writer examines the effects of her mother's imperfect English on her own experience as a daughter and a writer.
- Richard Rodriguez, Public and Private Language 524
The author, the son of Spanish-speaking Mexican American parents, recounts the origin of his complex views of bilingual education.

26. Men and Women 531

- Robert Jensen, The High Cost of Manliness 532
The author calls for abandoning the prevailing definition of masculinity, arguing that it is "toxic" to both men and women.
- Brent Staples, Black Men and Public Space 536
A black writer explains how his presence affects other pedestrians at night.
- Dave Barry, From Now On, Let Women Kill Their Own Spiders 539
By identifying with the frustrations of both men and women, this humor columnist pokes fun at the inevitable miscommunication between the genders.
- Judy Brady, I Want a Wife 542
Considering the hard work of a wife leads the author to an unusual conclusion.
- Cheryl Mendelson, My Secret Life 545
A working lawyer argues that domesticity is not only necessary, but enjoyable.

[PAIRED ESSAYS]

- Linda Babcock and Sara Laschever, Low Goals and Safe Targets 548
The authors illustrate the difference in negotiation and goal-setting tactics between men and women.
- Michael Gurian, Disappearing Act: Where Have the Men Gone? No Place Good 552
Now that men make up less than half of the population of college students, this essay points to a fundamental problem in the education system that may contribute to this situation.

27. Popular Culture 558

- Stephen King, Why We Crave Horror Movies 559
A popular horror fiction writer examines why people enjoy being frightened.
- Sarah Seltzer, The (Girl) Geek Stands Alone 562
Citing popular characters in movies and TV shows, the author illustrates the double standard surrounding male and female “geeks.”
- Ruth La Ferla, Latino Style Is Cool. Oh, All Right: It’s Hot 568
A reporter explores the proud expression of Latino heritage and culture through fashion.
- Frank Deford, NFL: Dodging the Concussion Discussion? 573
Highlighting the potential dangers of concussions in football, the author criticizes the NFL for turning a blind eye to the problem.

[PAIRED ESSAYS]

- Kate Dailey and Abby Ellin, America’s War on the Overweight 575
The authors challenge the preconceived notions about people who are obese and the negative attitudes directed toward them.
- Michael Pollan, The Cooking Animal 581
Citing cooking as “the key to our humanity,” the author discusses what the recent decline in cooking has done to society and how we can bring everyday cooking back.

28. E-Technology 586

- Clive Thompson, New Literacy 587
The author points to new research findings suggesting that technology is actually increasing literacy and the quality of student writing.
- David Gelernter, Computers Cannot Teach Children Basic Skills 590
A prominent computer scientist challenges the widely held view that computers are always a “godsend” in the classroom.
- Joseph Turow, Have They Got a Deal for You 594
Today’s online marketplace is having a negative effect on privacy and creating mistrust among consumers, the author argues.
- Emily Yoffe, Seeking 599
The desire to search constantly for information is explored as a link to the primal act of “seeking.”

[PAIRED ESSAYS]

- Sherry Turkle, How Computers Change the Way We Think 602
A psychologist explores how technologies such as online chat, PowerPoint, word processors, and simulation games are radically affecting our “habits of mind.”
- Michael Agger, Lazy Eyes 609
Taking a humorous approach, the author uses visual representation to illustrate the way we read content online.

29. Explorations on Living Well 614

- Sarah Adams, Be Cool to the Pizza Dude 615
The author uses one simple rule to illuminate the principles she follows in everyday life.
- William F. Buckley Jr., Why Don’t We Complain? 618
The passive attitude the author thinks Americans have adapted is scrutinized through his – sometimes absurd – personal experiences.
- William Zinsser, The Right to Fail 624
As much as society does not want to admit it, failure is an important aspect of human experience, the author argues.

- Harold Law, Finding Prosperity by Feeding Monkeys 628
The author shares an unusual ritual he performs every year on his birthday for the good of his family.
- Eric Weiner, From The Geography of Bliss 630
Although America is wealthier than most other countries, it still falls short on the Happiness Index, and the author has a few ideas why that might be.

[PAIRED ESSAYS]

- Juliet Schor, The Creation of Discontent 634
The author questions whether luxury and consumerism tend to make people happy or whether the opposite is true.
- Llewellyn H. Rockwell Jr., In Defense of Consumerism 638
The author speaks as a spirited advocate of consumerism and its benefits for society.

BOOK 3

A WRITER'S RESEARCH MANUAL

Introduction: The Nature of Research 645

30. Planning and Managing Your Research Project 646

- Beginning Your Inquiry 646
The Assignment: Writing from Sources 646
- Generating Ideas and Asking a Research Question 648
Exploring Your Territory 648
Turning a Topic into a Question 649
Surveying Your Resources 652
Using Keywords and Links 652
Learning by Doing: Proposing Your Project 653

- Managing Your Project 653
Creating a Schedule 653
Planning Collaborative Research 654
Recording Information 655
Starting a Research Archive 656

31. Working with Sources 658

- Drawing the Details from Your Sources 658
- Starting a Working Bibliography 658
Learning by Doing: Building a Working Bibliography 659
Source Navigator: Article in a Magazine 660
Source Navigator: Article in a Scholarly Journal from a Database 662
Source Navigator: Book 664
Source Navigator: Page from a Web Site 666
- Capturing Information in Your Source Notes by Quoting, Paraphrasing, and Summarizing 669
Quoting 669
Paraphrasing 671
Summarizing 671
Learning by Doing: Capturing Information from Sources 672
- Developing an Annotated Bibliography 674

32. Finding Sources in the Library, on the Internet, and in the Field 676

- Searching the Library Online 677
- Searching Library Databases 680
- Using Other Library Resources 684
Consulting Reference Materials 684
Locating Special Materials 686
- Using the Internet for Research 687
Finding Recommended Internet Resources 687
Selecting Search Engines 688
Learning by Doing: Comparing Web Searches 689
Conducting Advanced Electronic Searches 689
Finding Specialized Online Materials 690

Finding Sources in the Field 692

- Interviewing 692
- Observing 693
- Using Questionnaires 693
- Corresponding 695
- Attending Public and Online Events 696

33. Evaluating Sources 697Evaluating Library and Internet Sources 697

- Who Is the Author? 700
- Who Else Is Involved? 701
- What Is the Purpose? 702
- When Was the Source Published? 702
- Where Did You Find the Source? 703
- Why Would You Use This Source? 703
- How Would This Source Contribute to Your Paper? 703
- Learning by Doing: Evaluating Your Sources 703

Evaluating Field Sources 703Reconsidering Your Purpose and Your Thesis 704*34. Integrating Sources 705*Using Sources Ethically 705*Capturing, Launching, and Citing Evidence from Sources 707

- Quoting and Paraphrasing Accurately 708
- Summarizing Concisely 710
- Avoiding Plagiarism 711
- Launching Source Material 713
- Citing Each Source Clearly 714
- TAKE ACTION Integrating and Synthesizing Sources 715

Synthesizing Ideas and Sources 716

- Learning by Doing: Integrating and Synthesizing Your Sources 716

35. Writing Your Research Paper 717Planning and Drafting 717

- Using Your Sources to Support Your Ideas 717

Launching and Citing Your Sources as You Draft 718

Beginning and Ending 719

Revising and Editing 720Documenting Sources 721

Additional Writing Assignments 722

36. MLA Style for Documenting Sources 723Citing Sources in MLA Style 725

- TAKE ACTION Citing and Listing Sources in MLA Style 726
- Who Wrote It? 727
- What Type of Source Is It? 728
- How Are You Capturing the Source Material? 729

Listing Sources in MLA Style 732

- Who Wrote It? 732
- What Type of Source Is It? 734

A Sample MLA Research Paper 742

- Student Essay: Candace Rardon, Meet Me in the Middle: The Student, the State, and the School 743

37. APA Style for Documenting Sources 753Citing Sources in APA Style 753

- Who Wrote It? 755
- What Type of Source Is It? 757
- How Are You Capturing the Source Material? 758

Listing Sources in APA Style 760

- Who Wrote It? 761
- What Type of Source Is It? 762

A Sample APA Research Paper 768

- Student Essay: Linn Bourgeau, Crucial Choices: Who Will Save the Wetlands If Everyone Is at the Mall? 769

BOOK
4A WRITER'S
HANDBOOK

Introduction: Grammar, or The Way Words
Work 779

- 38. Grammatical Sentences 780
1. Sentence Fragments 780
 2. Comma Splices and Fused Sentences 785
 3. Verbs 789
 4. Subject-Verb Agreement 804
 5. Pronoun Case 808
 6. Pronoun Reference 811
 7. Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement 814
 8. Adjectives and Adverbs 817
 9. Shifts 823
- 39. Effective Sentences 827
10. Misplaced and Dangling Modifiers 827
 11. Incomplete Sentences 830
 12. Mixed Constructions and Faulty Predication 833
 13. Parallel Structure 837
 14. Coordination and Subordination 840
 15. Sentence Variety 846
- 40. Word Choice 849
16. Appropriateness 849
 17. Exact Words 853
 18. Bias-Free Language 857
 19. Wordiness 860
- 41. Punctuation 862
20. End Punctuation 862
 21. Commas 864
 22. Semicolons 873
 23. Colons 875
 24. Apostrophes 877
 25. Quotation Marks 880
 26. Dashes 884
 27. Parentheses, Brackets, and Ellipses 885

- 42. Mechanics 890
28. Abbreviations 890
 29. Capital Letters 893
 30. Numbers 896
 31. Italics 898
 32. Hyphens 900
 33. Spelling 902

APPENDICES AND OTHER
RESOURCESQuick Format Guide A-1

- A. Following the Format for an Academic Paper A-1
- B. Integrating and Crediting Visuals A-8
- C. Preparing a Document Template A-13
- D. Solving Common Format Problems A-13
- E. Designing Documents for Your Audience A-14

Quick Research Guide A-18

- A. Defining Your Quest A-19
- B. Searching for Recommended Sources A-22
- C. Evaluating Possible Sources A-24
- D. Capturing, Launching, and Citing Evidence from Sources A-26
- E. Citing and Listing Sources in MLA or APA Style A-30

Quick Editing Guide A-36

- A. Editing for Common Grammar Problems A-38
- B. Editing to Ensure Effective Sentences A-47
- C. Editing for Common Punctuation Problems A-50
- D. Editing for Common Mechanics Problems A-53

A Glossary of Troublemakers A-56

Answers for Lettered Exercises A-63

Index I-1

PROOFREADING SYMBOLS

CORRECTION SYMBOLS

A GUIDE TO THE HANDBOOK